

Diane Grant, Author, Speaker, Parenting Expert Receives the Association Candidate of the Year Award from the Florida Speakers Association

Fort Lauderdale, FL (June 2016) During the end of year celebration and installation of Officers, Mace Horoff, President (outgoing) presented several awards to members of the Florida Speakers Association. Among them, the Legacy Award, Member of the Year Award and Association Candidate Award. Diane Grant was the recipient of the Association Candidate Award.

According to Mace Horoff: "Diane Grant is passionate about delivering her message to audiences so they can get the results they're after. Since she joined the Florida Speakers Association as an Association Candidate, her commitment to herself and to others has been unwavering. In light of this, The Florida Speakers Association of The National Speakers Association has named Diane Grant Association Candidate of the Year 2016."

Diane Grant said: "Determined to make a difference in young teen lives is what inspired me to write "Brave Smart and Beautiful, Communicating with Teen Daughters". Not wanting another teen to feel disconnected, lonely or unloved. Amazing accomplishments come from girls who are confident, who love and respect themselves and who have strong, empowering role models to help guide them through the difficulties of teen years. Who better to be that role model, than their Mothers?"

About the Florida Speakers Association (FSA): Florida Speakers Association (FSA) is a chapter of the National Speakers Association (NSA), an organization dedicated to the growth and development of the speaking profession. Founded in 1980, the Florida Speakers Association maintains an active membership and involvement in virtually all aspects of the professional speaking industry. We have won NSA's Chapter of Excellence Award for every year since 1988. The mission of FSA is "to provide the education, information and networking to those that desire to improve their speaking skills."

About Diane Grant: Diane is the author of Brave Smart and Beautiful Communicating with Teen Daughters. She is also a speaker, parenting coach, wife, mother of 6 and business owner.
